

Arts and culture are in a sad state in this country. Consolidating media ownership even further will only make things worse. On June 2nd, please retain the current ownership rules.